The Administration for Children and Families is the federal administrator of the Children’s Justice Act program. Additional guidance on the implementation of the information contained in the memorandum will be disseminated once it becomes available.

Ms. Wheeler provided members with the 2019 schedule of meetings and informed them that meetings will remain on Thursdays at 1:30 p.m. in Crownsville. The major change is that the Committee will meet four times in 2019 versus six times as they have in the past. There will be more workgroup meetings in between the regular meetings. Members were reminded of the importance of attending all meetings in person and that conference calling should be limited as much as possible.

Detective Pyles gave members a tour of The Blue Ribbon Project, a non-profit organization that provides assistance to youth in foster care and those who are survivors of child abuse and neglect. As founder, Detective Pyles informed members of his own personal experiences that drove him to create the organization that now operates in twelve counties in Maryland. The Blue Ribbon Project provides backpacks for children who are removed from their homes by the Department of Social Services. These “Backpacks of Love” contain essentials such as personal hygiene products, school supplies, and clothing.
